Lesson #6 Faith always looks to the future
5:1-10 – The apostle refers to our as "earthly"
 What happens when this tabernacle is torn down? What does it mean to "groan"? For what did God prepare us according to this text? God gave us his as a pledge regarding his intention Because of this, we are always of good but what does this mean practically speaking? What is the relationship, if any, between faith & courage? The saint's ambition is to be to the Lord We will all appear before the seat of Christ to be rewarded for our deeds we did in these Where were these things a theme in a previous writing?
5:11-15 – "Knowing the fear of the Lord, we men"
 ⇒ What do you believe the apostle means when he speaks of being made manifest to God but also to the Corinthians? ⇒ What distinction is Paul drawing in verse 12?
⇒ He said the of God constrains or controls them, but upon what conclusion is this based?
5:16-21 – "Therefore from now on we recognize no one according to the"
 What do you believe the apostle means by the above statement? How does your conclusion about that statement impact your thinking about your fellow human beings?
 "If any man is in Christ, he is a creature/creation" According to 5:18, what two things has God done for Paul as well as the Corinthians?
 How does the apostle refer to himself and his entourage? God made Jesus to become on our behalf so that we could become the of God in him

Second Corinthians
