

The Law

The first _____ books of the English Bible are called the "Law" or "Pentateuch" but the Jews today refer to it as the "Torah", which means _____ / _____

The first actual laws were given in the form of the _____ of God in Exodus 20:1-17 (see also Deuteronomy 5)

↪ First 4 were about _____

↪ Final 6 were about _____

The writing of the law was attributed to _____:

- Exodus 24:4, 34:27, Numbers 33:2 (history), Deuteronomy 31:9, 31:24-27
- Jesus often referred to it simply as _____ or the _____ of Moses – Matthew 8:4, Mark 7:10, Luke 16:31 & John 5:45-47

Much of the Law is actually _____ as shown below

A) Genesis – the _____ book is narrative

B) Exodus – chapters 1-19 are the narrative of the _____ itself
20-23 – law
24 – narrative of the _____ of the law
25-30 – instructions for the _____ & _____ 31 – God's commissioning of _____ 32-40 – narrative of the building & _____ of the tabernacle

C) Leviticus – chapters 1-9 outline _____ laws 10 – narrative of Nadab & Abihu who were _____ _____ and the sons of _____ 11-27 – various laws

D) Numbers – chapters 1-2 record the first _____ of Israel & God's layout for their _____ 3-5 – laws regarding the _____ priests
6 – law of the _____ 7 – narrative of the leaders' _____
8-10 – law
11-14 – narratives – the people _____, Miriam & Aaron _____ against Moses, selection & sending of _____, the people _____ based on the report of the spies, God's declaration of a _____ - _____ hold on the promised land

(Numbers continued)

15 – law

16-17 – Korah's _____ & punishment

18-19 – law

20-25 – narratives – separate deaths of both _____ & _____, Brazen _____ on a pole, Balaam's counsel & the ensuing _____

26 – 2nd _____ following the plague

27-30 – law

31-33 – narrative – slaughter of Midian & _____, Reuben, Gad & half the tribe of Manasseh settle _____ of the Jordan

34-36 – law

E) Deuteronomy – chapters 1-10 – narrative

11-26 law

27-28 – Narrative of the _____ & _____ from Mount Gerizim & Ebal respectively

29-30 – covenant of Moab @ the _____ of the 40 years

31-34 – Moses' narrative & _____

Therefore, of the 187 total chapters of the law, loosely speaking, 61 chapters actually describe _____, while the rest of them (126) provide the _____ in which the law was given