

Review:

- The first judge God _____ was named _____. He was a nephew to _____. Through Othniel, the land had rest for _____ years.
- The second judge was named _____. He was from the tribe of _____ and was _____ - handed. He killed Eglon, king of _____ and rallied Israel to war against them. Through Ehud, Israel had rest for _____ years.
- Third in line was _____ whose weapon of choice was an _____. He used it to strike down _____ Philistines.

Judges 4:1-10

1. After Ehud _____, Israel again did _____ in the sight of the Lord, so he _____ them into the hand of Jabin who was king of Canaan. Jabin's captain over his army was _____. Sisera had _____ chariots of _____ which he used to oppress Israel for _____ years.
2. Deborah was a _____ and the _____ of a man named Lappidoth. She judged in the hill country of _____ and the sons of Israel came to her for _____.
3. Evidently by _____ order, she summoned _____ to march against Mount _____ with 10,000 men. God promised through Deborah to _____ Sisera & his army to the river _____ and give them into Barak's hand. Barak agreed to go, but only if _____ went with him. To this she agreed, but said the _____ of the victory will be given to a _____. Barak gathered 10,000 from the tribes of _____ & _____ and went _____ to Mount Tabor.

Judges 4:11-24

4. It is noted here that a man named _____ who was a Kenite of the sons of Hobab (also called "_____", who was Moses' father-in-law, Exodus 2:18 as well as "_____", Exodus 3:1) had moved near the area of _____. The reason for this note becomes clear in the following text.
5. Sisera (captain of _____ army) brings his army with the _____ to the _____ river but the _____ routs him with his army and they are defeated. Abandoning his chariot, Sisera flees on foot to the tent of _____.

Heber the Kenite where Heber's wife, _____, greets him and gives the exhausted man milk. After he drinks it he _____ . While he sleeps, Jael drives a _____ through his temples into the _____.

Judges 5:1-31 – The Song of Deborah & Barak

6. In their song, there appears to be _____ as to how God dealt with King Jabin's army and his captain Sisera. 5:4 says that the earth _____ and the heavens _____. 5:20-21 also records that the _____ fought from heaven and that the _____ of Kishon swept them away. So it may be that Sisera's _____ chariots floundered and were overwhelmed by an _____ as well as a great _____ that resulted in the Kishon _____ its banks making it impossible for the very chariots upon which the Canaanites trusted to be of any benefit.

While the above is _____, it is at least conjecture supported by Phenomena to which the _____ refers.

The song also mentions _____ by name and details how she killed Sisera by _____ and _____.